ASSIGNMENTS ON SELECTIVE PLAN

Men Who Register Next Thursday
May Not Select Branch of Service They Desire.

GOVERNMENT TO PLACE MEN

Final Plans Completed by Local Board for the Big Enrollment on September 12.

The men who register on next Thursday will not be entitled to select the branch of service they most desire, according to present indications. It is pointed out that the government will raise the big army on purely the selective service basis and will assign the registrants to the places where they are needed and for which they are best qualified when they are inducted into service. This is a material change since the selective draft law was passed for formerly men could designate their preference and the military officials were guided thereby as far as possible. The change came following the recent notice that no more volunteers would be accepted.

The Jackson county conscription board has made final plans for the registration of men next Thursday under the man power law. There seems to be some doubt in the minds of many as to the meaning of the term "eighteen to forty-five inclusive," the ages which are included. The proclamation issued by the president explains clearly who shall register and the section covering this provides that all men who shall have reached their eighteenth birthday and shall not have attained their forty-sixth birthday by September 12, will be required to register, unless they have previously registered.

According to a special dispatch to The Republican this afternoon from Washington men between the ages of thirty-two and thirty-six, and the nineteen and twenty-year-old registrants will be called first in the new draft. The announcement was made by Provost Marshal General. The dispatch says that eighteen-year-old registrants and those above thirty-six will be called later.

The dispatch states that September calls will practically exhaust the original class one supply and that a few registered on August 24 are being classified now.

Mailing of the questionnaires will begin immediately after registration next Thursday. By September 15 all states should have reported to Washington their total registrations and the work of assigning serial numbers to registrants by the local board will be well under way a few days later.

There will be practically no loss of time in starting the machinery for inducting men of the new draft. The dispatch states that the boards will concentrate on the cards of men between nineteen and thirty-six, both inclusive, leaving those who are not liable to immediate calls for later attention.

TRINITY M. E. CHURCH CLOSES BUSINESS YEAR

The Rev. William Weiler, Pastor, Attends Annual Conference at Evansville.

The Rev. William Weiler, pastor of the Trinity M. E. church, went to Evansville today to attend the annual conference of the church which convenes tonight. The session will close Sunday night when the assignment of ministers for the coming year will be read. Bishop McConnell will preside over the sessions. Mr. Weiler has had a very successful year in this city and he and the members of his congregation expect him to be returned to the local church. During the year thus closed many new members have been enrolled and the church has been advanced in many ways.

Arrests by Bolsheviks.

By United Press.
Washington, September 10—Two hundred and forty English and French and one American were arrested in Moscow by the Bolsheviks, according to a courier reaching Samarax, September 5. The American, Simon A. Foster, said to be a U. S. government employe, was later released, according to state department advices.

German Admission.

By United Press.
Berlin, September 10—Minor sections of the German trenches in Flanders have been taken by the British, the war office announced today. British attacks against Gouzeaucourt and Epehy were repulsed, the statement said.

WORKERS PLAN FOR INTENSIVE DRIVE

County to be Represented at Liberty
Loan Meeting at Evansville
Tomorrow.

CONFERENCE AT BROWNSTOWN
Holds of Various War Savings Societies to Meet Saturday to Discuss Plans for Campaign.

Plans are going forward rapidly for the next Liberty Loan drive in Jackson county. The campaign will be an intensive one and instead of dragging it along over three weeks an effort will be made to secure the county allotment of subscriptions in one day's or not to exceed two days' time. To do this an energetic campaign will have to be mapped out and the workers are giving their attention to the details so that the goal may be reached speedily.

Although it is expected that the county's quota of the big subscription will be $650,000, the exact amount is not known. However, the details will be disclosed at a conference to be held at Evansville Wednesday. The county will be represented at the meeting. Among those who will attend are J. H. Andrews, county chairman of the Liberty Loan organization, C. D. Billings, Miss Katherine B. Jackson, of this city, and John Kieffer, of Brownstown. The plans for the campaign will be presented there and the details will be worked out as soon as the workers return from the Evansville meeting.

Miss Jackson has been appointed chairwoman of the woman's organization in four counties, namely, Jackson, Lawrence, Sullivan and Greene.

The Jackson County War Savings Organization will throw its entire weight back of the Liberty Loan and will aid in putting the county over the top. A meeting of the presidents of the various societies in the county will be held at Brownstown at noon Saturday at which time plans will be outlined in detail. Capt. Statton, returned Canadian officer, will give an address. A dinner will be served by the ladies of the Brownstown M. E. church at the Masonic hall. It is expected that the drive will be made in much the same manner that the whirlwind campaign for the W. S. S. was conducted several months ago.

SERG. MIZE ANXIOUS TO GET BACK TO THE FRONT

Local Soldier, Recently Wounded, Says He Has Some Scores to Settle With Germans.

Serg. James T. Mize, who was recently wounded in action, states in a letter which was written August 4 to his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lee Mize, of this city, that he has some scores to settle with the Germans. His letter is devoted to telling about a slight injury he received on July 19. He has been wounded three times, the first time early in the spring.

"I'll be ready again for duty in a week or two," he stated. "Then it's back to the front for little Jimmie, and when I get back I have quite a few scores to even up with 'Heine the Hun.' Not only the bullet I stopped, but I had quite a few friends who cannot go back to get back at them. So you see I've got to make doubly good next time. Though personally I have inflicted more damage than I received, but some you know were beaten to it. And you can bet I'll avenge some of them or do a good job trying.

"From reports received here it seems that the crop outlook in the States is very promising and I have seen some of the finest fields of wheat in France I ever saw in my life. German prisoners report good crops in Germany, too. You know 'right is might,' in spite of kultur's disapproval."

INSTRUCTION FOR REGISTERED MEN

Preliminary Training in Army Tactics Will Be Started Here
Thursday Night.

MEN TO MEET AT CITY BUILDING

Four Townships Comprise District
Which is Placed in Charge of Seymour Board.

Preliminary training in army tactics for men who expect to be called in the near future for military service will be started here this week under the direction of a special board of instructors appointed by the Jackson county conscription board. The instructors have announced that the first meeting will be held at 7:30 o'clock Thursday night at the city building. The district under the jurisdiction of the local instructors is comprised of Jackson, Hamilton, Vernon and Redding townships and the men living in this district who may be called soon are requested to attend the meeting here Thursday night. The members of the board are Judge O. H. Montgomery, W. L. Johnson and Claude Carter.

The plan of giving preliminary instruction to registrants before they are received into the cantonments originated with the war department and the appointment of the instructors by the conscription board was at the instance of the war department. It is pointed out that in this way the registrants can become familiar with commands and orders before they are inducted into service and will have a better idea of what to expect.

VITAL INDUSTRIES TO BE PROTECTED

This is Made Clear by Explanation by General Crowder of "Preference List."

(By Robert J. Bender, United Press Staff Correspondent.)

Washington, September 10—In the forthcoming great draft every care is to be taken to protect essential industries but at the same time exceptional alertness will be shown to prevent abuse of "industrial exemption" claims.

This has been made clear by the Provost Marshal General, explaining the "preference list" issued by the war industries board to aid draft boards.

"Such lists shall not be regarded as binding upon the district board in its conclusions as to whether any particular industry, occupation or employment is necessary," Provost Marshal General Crowder today declared. "Nor shall such lists prevent the district board from holding as necessary any industry, occupation or employment not contained therein."

Crowder declares that these lists merely supplement information in the hand of the district boards and to assist the boards in dealing with specific cases.

Each board will have industrial advisors who will bring to the attention of the board itself such matters as whether or not individuals engaged in some particular line of industry are so necessary there as to outweigh the benefit the nation would get from their services elsewhere.

These advisors will confer with employers who ask deferred classification for their men and with employees in whose behalf no such claims have been made. Thus a much more careful examination of questionnaires is in prospect for the next draft and it is hoped to reduce the minimum both the abuse and exemption privileges and in justice, occurring from too hasty passing up of questionnaires. In determining upon the classification of men there will be only two great binding factors in the work or fight interpretation of right to exemption or deferred classification.

First, that a man is engaged in industry, occupation or employment necessary to the maintenance or operation of military forces or the maintenance of public interest.

Second, that he is himself necessary to the operation of necessary industry.

GREAT ARMIES ON LINES OF YEAR AGO

Eyes of The World Fixed Upon The Next Move of the Silent Field
Marshal of the Allies.

WILL GERMANS MAKE A STAND?

Next Sixty Days Will Determine
Where Armies Will Stand Before
Gen. Winter Takes Charge.

(By William Philip Simms, United Press Staff Correspondent)

Paris, September 10—Once again the allies stand face to face with the Germans on almost the identical lines where they stood throughout the winter, awaiting the unloosening of the great Teutonic offensives. Once again as it was last March each day is a day of waiting and suspense and "what will tomorrow bring?"

Today the British, French and Americans are making their last adjustments in front of the Hindenburg line. The British menace to Armentieres, Lens, Douai and Cambrai, while the French threaten St. Quentin, LaFere, St. Gobain and Laon. Will the allies keep up their drive and will the Germans attempt to hold their present positions? The next sixty days must tell the tale. After that General Winter takes charge of operations.

Foch continues in his role of a human enigma. The only hint given as to his intentions was when he said the allied offensive would not stop until victory had been won. This statement is mystic as he probably intended to be. It may seem an intense attack, throwing the Germans back from the Hindenburg line this autumn or merely harassing them until the new campaign season opens in the spring.

Hindenburg, however, announces that the retreat is at an end. This obviously means he intends to stick where he is. The Berlin Vorwaerts in an article that looks as if it had been inspired declares that the Germans intend to fight on the defense. Is this sand, purposely thrown in the allies eyes, or is the statement sincere? Heretofore the Germans have ended each fighting season with some dazzling coup scheduled to give the German people courage to face the privations of winter. Hindenburg affirms the country is very gloomy. Hertling admits the kaiser's dynasty is endangered. In view of this situation, it would not be surprising if the Germans attempted some sort of a forlorn hope either a bayonet offensive or a peace offensive soon, and especially as they know that next spring the allies will smother them with men, airplanes, tanks, guns, shells, gas and materials when it is too late for them to do anything.

Local fighting keeps up in the British and French sectors, but this is interesting only as hammerings behind the curtain betoken preparations for the last act.

CORTLAND H. S. OPENS

Prof. O. L. Voris Continues as Superintendent of Schools.

The Cortland High School opened Monday, September 9th, with an enrollment of thirty-nine. This is an increase of four over the past two years. Voris, who has been the superintendent of the Cortland schools for the past few years will continue as its superintendent. Miss Lura Lynch, of Cortland, will continue as Principal and Miss Ruby Jenkins, of Orleans, as Assistant Principal. Both Miss Lynch and Miss Jenkins have been teaching in the Cortland schools for several years. Prof. Voris states that the school work is starting out with a great deal of interest and enthusiasm.

GOOD PROGRESS IS MADE BY YANKEES

Americans Have Advanced in Local Attacks Against Le Petite
Montagne Tableland.

FIGHTING IS CONTINUING

Many German Snipers and Machine
Gunners Picked Off in Wooded Territory.

(By Lowell Mellett, United Press Staff Correspondent.)

With the American Armies in France, September 20—Americans have advanced in local attacks against Le Petite Montagne table.

After a strong bombardment of the hill, the Americans launched their assault Monday. The fight is still continuing.

Our infantry went forward in small groups, filtering in between the enemy machine gun nests which were thickly scattered during the wooded ravines. The Americans picked off German snipers and gun crews, one by one. When the last word was received, the Americans were approaching the foot of the plateau and working around the sides of the tableland. The advance was most difficult owing to the large number of machine gun nests and snipers. Despite this resistance good progress has been reported. A number of machine gun squads were wiped out.

The crest of Le Petite Montagne is infested with machine guns behind a strong wire system which American heavy guns have been methodically pounding. Some prisoners and machine guns were taken during Monday and sent to the rear.

On Sunday night, during pitch darkness, our troops sifted in between the outlying nests, killed or drove off the crews and then returned to their own lines.

Simultaneously the French on our right advanced in co-operation with us. Determination of the enemy to hold their positions on top of the plateau and the strength of these positions is shown by the fact that the Germans have 18 heavy machine guns and over a score of light ones on the table land alone. As machine guns on fringes of the heights are gradually cleaned out, the Americans are working up the lower slopes of the system of strongly defended plateaus.

BRITISH BEYOND 1917 BATTLE LINE

Field Marshal Haig Reports Wide
Breach in the Strongest
German Defenses.

PRAISES BRAVERY OF TROOPS

Advance South of Havrincourt Reported—75,000 Prisoners in Four Weeks.

By United Press.

London, September 10—"Already we have passed beyond our old battle line of 1917 and we have made a wide breach in the strongest defenses," Field Marshal Haig declared today in an order of the day.

"All ranks have borne themselves in a worthy and honorable manner. The British army captured 75,000 prisoners and 750 guns in four weeks. This speaks the magnitude of our efforts and our magnificent achievements."

Haig's statement said:

"Yesterday evening the enemy's second counter-attack on positions gained in the morning west of Czeaucourt was completely repulsed. Our line was advanced during the night south of Havrincourt. We made progress northeast of Neuve Chapelle and west and north of Armentieres."

British troops advanced south of Havrincourt during the night, Haig reported.

British forces below Epehy attacked at 5:15 this morning. The assault was made on a front of 3,000 yards despite the rain which is sweeping the battlefield and mud that impedes operations.

Epehy is on the Hindenburg line a short distance south of Gouzeaucourt where the British attacked yesterday, winning important territory. British troops, like the French, are edging towards St. Quentin. An outpost was reported established this morning near Fresnoy-le-Petite, three miles from the Hindenburg line and slightly more than three miles northwest of St. Quentin.

Striking towards St. Quentin from the south the French have captured Gilbertcourt seven miles from the city, the French war office announced today. The French are making progress in the direction of Hinecourt, the statement said. These towns are north of Givencourt on the way to St. Quentin.

In their advance against St. Quentin the French have captured Hill 103, less than four miles south of the city, according to the night official statement of the war office.

Driving along the Ham-St. Quentin road, the French have captured Roupv, a little more than five miles from their objective. Pushing toward the Hindenburg line north of LaFere, the statement showed the French had swept across the Croizat canal at many points and advanced two miles beyond, seizing Clatres, Montescourt, Lizerolles, Remigny, Fort Liez and the woods northwest of Canlers farm and rouge farm.

"We made fresh progress today north of the Somme, the French statement said. "We captured Edtriellers and Rousey."

(These towns are west and south-west of St. Quentin.)

"Beyond the Croizat canal we captured Grand Seraucourt (less than six miles southwest of St. Quentin); Clatres, Montescourt-Lizerolles Remigny."

"We captured Hill 103, southward of Contescourt and Hill 117 south of Essigny-le-Grand station. North of the Oise we captured Fort Liel and the woods northwest of Canlers farm and Rouge farm."

"South of the Oise we extended our positions in the Servais brick field and the Servais station and toward Laffaux."

"Between the Aisne and the Vesle we extended our positions toward Glennies."

"TODAY, I'M WELL"

Says Jackson Lady, And Thanks Cardui For Her Good Health.

Jackson, Ohio—Mrs. Alice Scirlock, of this place, writes: "About three or four years I was in a very weak state. I suffered with my sides. They were sore and it seemed when I would lay down at nights something seemed like it twisted and pulled in my sides.

I could not rest nights, I was so very nervous. At... time I was worse than others, the pain was much more severe. I had sick headaches. My limbs would get numb and this was disagreeable... I doctored myself and tried different operations... I was very frightened of doctors and felt I could not go through one, I had gotten down so nervous. I read of Cardui and decided to use it. I took 11 or 12 bottles. Today I'm well and do not have any nervous trouble. I am able to do my own work and feel so strong and well. My sides are all right, and I know Cardui did it. I certainly am stronger than in a long time."

If you suffer from any of the troubles so common to women, try Cardui. Thousands of women give Cardui credit for their good health. NCB-11

FORMER RAILROAD MAN WRITES FROM "OVER THERE"

Charles L. Blevins Tells About Train Operation in France—Conductors Use Horns.

The following letter has been received by O. E. Henderson, of this city, from Charles L. Blevins, formerly a Baltimore & Ohio Railroad employe, who is now with Uncle Sam's Expeditionary Forces in France:

No doubt you will be surprised to get this but as I am writing to my little girl there in Seymour I just thought of you and thought perhaps you would like to get a letter from over here. Omer, this has been one of the greatest experiences of my life and if I can only live to get back it will be much greater as I would give anything if I was passing by the Statue of Liberty this a. m. instead of where I am. But to speak of the country, it is certainly a beautiful place but they are far behind the times. Everything is done the old way, the farmers cradle their wheat and the houses are all stone, no frame buildings. But one thing they have got on us is country roads. We have lots of little villages to visit, something like Osgood or Versailles, lots of good looking French girls but you can't understand them. Well, there's a lot to see in this country, some awful sights and they are making the Germans go some now. Captured 24,000 the last few days, there are quite a lot of them near us. Well, how is business on the old B. & O. We have several of the boys working over here but the most of them are from the Eastern Division. Oh, yes there is a fireman by the name of Kuntz who lives at Butlerville in this outfit. Omer, railroading over here is some different from back home, we only handle 1,300 tons at the most and they run a train every twenty minutes, all American equipment. You never get train orders, they are all moved by the Station agents, he governs the blocks by levers and there are stations every three or four miles. You carry the caboose next to engine and you drive up to a station. When the block is against you and stop, the agent comes out and tells you when you can go. The conductor has a little horn he carries with him all the time and then when he gets the tip to go he blows the horn which the Hagger recognizes and they tear out to the next station. It is all double track and the American boys have got it on the French when it comes to railroading. Our Division is 152 miles long. It takes the French twenty-four hours to make it, we have made it in six hours. The flagman and the head brakeman stay back on the train. Nearly all of the cars have little dog houses for the brakeman and flagman to ride in and it is all hand braking, but very little air. Going east we run within sixty-five miles of the front lines and you bet I could hear the big guns. That is about as close as I care to go. You never hear anybody kicking for his rights as everybody gets his 33 per. You have to stand a French book of rules examination and I just got my conductor's permit last Sunday and my little horn. They are talking of sending some of us to Russia. I suppose they will run us all over the world before this thing is over but it is a good clean life to live and I like it fine.

Will close for this time. Give all the boys my best regards. Hoping to hear from you soon, I remain,

Yours truly,

Hello, Kamman!

"I'm going to France and I want a Diamond for the girl I'm going to leave behind. I've got $100 to spend.

"Here is one."

"What, so small? She expects one three times as large. I suppose I can't suit her."

"Here is another. How do you like it?"

"Do you think I am a millionaire? This ring is four times larger."

"No, dear friend, your $100 will buy the ring. This is one of the latest DIAMOND CLUSTER CREATIONS, which have the appearance of a solitaire."

"By Jove, that's the stuff! I'll swell up with pride when I present my girl a $100 Diamond Ring with a $500 appearance."

It will pay us both if you will inspect our large stock of Diamonds, Jewelry and Wrist Watches. You are always welcome.

WHAT THE WAR MOVES MEAN

By J. W. T. Mason, (United Press War Expert)

New York, September 10.—Von Hindenburg has partly straightened the salient in his front west to St. Quentin and Marshal Foch is now engaged in digging the pocket deeper than it was before by driving against LaFere, fifteen miles south of St. Quentin.

If LaFere falls, to the allies, a threat to encircle St. Quentin from the south will begin to develop. This will necessitate a resumption of Von Hindenburg's retreat from the Somme all the way back to St. Quentin and eventually beyond. Only a decision by the Germans to give up the entire length of the Hindenburg line can justify their retirement beyond LaFere. It is here that the Hindenburg line begins to make its swing to the east. LaFere is a powerful fortress of the second class, constructed by the French as one of a series, for the overmost defense of Paris.

It has served the Germans admirably as a pivot for the Hindenburg line, no other position so well filled to withstand the shock of a turning point in the ex-front exists between LaFere and the Belgian frontier. If the Germans intended to keep to the present formation of their west front, they would be compelled to cling to LaFere with the utmost tenacity. Instead of this they are reported to be setting fire to the fortress, and destroying stores as if the occupancy were not to be permanent.

When Marshal Foch is in possession of LaFere, not only the German line to the northward but also the new German positions along the Aisne will begin to fall into dangerous wedge formations.

This means that the retirement before the American pressure north of the Vesle will be enforced upon Von Hindenburg if he is to insure himself against double attacks from the flank and rear, simultaneously with American frontal assaults.

Notice to Milk Consumers.

The world war has combed the farms and other productive industries and drawn tens of thousands of men to the trenches and into the factories. This has caused advances in price that affect every man, woman, and child.

The farmer who a short time ago received $1.00 per bushel for wheat is now receiving $2.08. Cotton which a few years ago sold for 6c per pound now brings 36c.

The value of all farm products in the United States rose from $4,000,000,000 in 1904 to $21,000,000,000 in 1917.

The cost of milk is governed in just the same way as that of all other farm products. This means we must either advance the price of milk temporarily or go out of business.

We appeal to the patriotism and judgment of the people of Seymour to meet this situation in the same spirit we have been obliged to adopt. Do not stop using milk. Do not reduce your daily supply, milk at 12c a quart is the cheapest and best food you can buy.

A full statement of our condition has been submitted to C. H. Wiethoff, Food Administrator for Jackson county, and a committee, representing the consumers who have approved the new scale of prices and authorized them to take effect September 10. The new scale of prices will be as follows: Milk, quart 12c; milk, pint 7c; cream, pint 24c; cream, 1/2 pint 12c. This schedule will remain in effect until January 1, 1919. After this date the price will be governed entirely by conditions existing at that time.

A word about bottles. The price of bottles has advanced more than 100 percent. Patrons are urged to have an empty bottle in exchange for each bottle of milk delivered.

An extra charge of 5c will be made when bottles are not received in exchange. This rule is made necessary on account of the enormous loss sustained by not receiving bottles in exchange.

Very Respectfully,
Seymour Milkmen.

Miss Mary Lewis has gone to Hartford City where she will teach in the public schools during the coming term.

INSTRUCTION FOR REGISTERED MEN

pect of them when they enter the army camps.

The instructors will take up various phases of army life. Lectures will be given from time to time as to the necessity for raising the army. Why discipline is required and other conditions which will be experienced will be explained. Mr. Johnson and Mr. Carter are familiar with army tactics and will give the registrants instruction which will be highly valuable to them later.

It is the purpose of the Seymour board to give such training as the new men would receive at the army camps during the first four months after they are inducted into the service. It is obvious that such instruction will be beneficial and will mean that the registrants will have an advantage over others who have not taken the training before entering the camp.

Several other districts have been designated in the county with a board of instructors over each.
